

SEAMEN BALLOONING ON QUITTING WORK; MASTERS ORGANIZE

Formidable Body to Be Ready in Case the Union Men Decide to Go Out.

FREIGHTER IS DELAYED BY STRIKE AT NEW YORK

Marine Industrial Claims a Complete Walkout on Five Other Vessels.

London, May 11 (By A. P.).—If the seamen's strike materializes, it will find a formidable masters' organization arrayed to meet it. Ballooning on the strike question now is progressing and the result will be made known at the end of the week. The committee formed by the chamber of shipping, under the chairmanship of Sir Walter Runciman, was strengthened today by the addition as members of Sir Alfred Booth, Viscount Inchcape, and Sir Thomas Royden, and now presents a complete combine of British shipping interests for cooperative protective purposes.

While Southampton is still cut off from railway communication with London, trains are bringing American passengers from Liverpool with fair regularity.

Thirty passengers from the liner Baltic, 80 from the Aureania and 100 from the Caronia, reached London from Liverpool, but a fleet of charabans was required to bring the Aquitania's 410 passengers from Southampton, where the big Cunarder docked this afternoon.

Leviathan Sails for U. S. Southampton, England, May 11 (By A. P.).—The Leviathan sailed for New York at 11 o'clock this morning with 383 passengers. All the baggage was loaded by volunteer workers.

New York, May 11 (By A. P.).—The Barber line freighter Sanate Castle, which was to have sailed today for Cape Town via Philadelphia with a general cargo, was detained when its crew quit work in sympathy with the British general strike at the instigation of the Marine Transport Workers industrial union.

It was the first vessel to be held up since the union, a branch of the Industrial Workers of the World, declared a strike at midnight Sunday for a flat $15 a month wage increase for all grades.

In addition, the union claimed a complete walk-out on four oil tankers and an American freighter. Of the ships mentioned by the union, the Standard oil tanker Charles Pratt sailed on schedule for Talara, Peru; another Standard Oil tanker, the W. S. Teagle is tied up for 30 days' repairs at Bayonne, N. J., and officers of the Pan-American Petroleum Co. tanker Herman Bridge and the Bull line freighter Clara denied that their crews had quit.

BRITISH STRIKE CAUSES JAM ON LONDON'S SPEEDWAY

First photograph, other than by radio, received from England since the strike began shows London's famous highway, the Thames embankment, between Westminster and Blackfriars crowded with motors because of the idle trains and street cars.

END OF STRIKE DISCUSSED BY BOTH SIDES IN LONDON

settlement, the government and the leaders of labor did not relax their measures—on the one side to overcome the gigantic labor demonstration and on the other to carry on the general strike, which is just beginning its second week.

Labor's official mouthpiece, the British Worker, announced the spread of the strike to the men in the engineering and shipbuilding trades, the Trades Union congress having issued the strike call to the unions in these trades, which are affiliated with the congress. Men working in government dockyards, admiralty establishments and government engineering departments, however, are not affected.

Pressure Closing Factories.

This is in part "the second line of defense" which the labor leaders promised several days ago would, if necessary, be brought into the field, and, in making reference to the call, the British Worker says: "These men have awaited their instructions impatiently, and through-out the country they have received their marching orders with enthusiasm and a sense of relief."

"In addition to the men obeying this call to reinforce the gallant first line, others are out because of refusal to work with 'blacklegs,' or because the pressure of the strike is closing down factories."

This was one of the outstanding events of an eventful day, and it means that not less than 300,000 engineers and shipbuilders have joined forces with other industrial workers standing out against the government's warning that the general strike must be called off before negotiations for the settlement of the miners' strike are possible.

Call Resented by Many.

The summons of the Trade Union congress to the second line has not been welcomed everywhere by those affected. Among the 20,000 engineers and shipworkers on the Tyne—where considerable resentment was shown by the men. Owing to the prolonged depression their unions are unable to provide unemployment pay, and some of the men protest against being called out without a ballot.

The flour mill workers at Hull, which is a large flour-milling center, went on strike tonight. A pronouncement in the chancery division by Justice Astbury, that the general strike was illegal was viewed as highly important, and was utilized by Sir John Simon, the former home secretary, in the house of commons to support his previous contention that the men on strike had violated the law and could be held responsible for the damage ensuing from the general strike.

Peace Activities Lively.

Peace activities were of a livelier and more extensive character than on any day since the men withdrew from their labors. Sir John Simon declared in the commons that he and some of his friends were about to take up the responsibility that both the government and Trades Unions congress had appeared to avoid—that of initiating a definite movement for the resumption of peace negotiations. This will take the form of a request that the house of commons record its view that the government, under certain conditions set forth, consent to give temporary assistance to the coal industry.

The conditions were that the general strike be called off, that work be resumed in the mines at the old rates, and that the recommendations of the royal coal commission be put into effect.

There was apparently a general belief that Sir John's proposal had received some encouragement from the government, and the former labor minister, Tom Shaw, took occasion to say that the labor men were ready to make the peace move effective if the miners were guaranteed a square deal.

The ministers of the crown were again in council, and the king held a privy council, those present being the Earl of Balfour, Sir William Joynson-Hicks and Lord Eustace Percy. Lord Balfour had a private conference with the king prior to this and Sir William Joynson-Hicks remained for a time with the king after the council.

While the Trades Union congress called out more men there was evidence of conciliatory tendencies in other ways. One was particularly remarked—the Trades Union congress ordered all the trade unionists employed at the Woolwich arsenal, who struck on their own responsibility, to resume work today.

Everything would seem to depend upon whether it will be possible to induce the mine owners to retrace their steps, so that the negotiations may resume the position they held before the lockout notices took effect.

Disturbances at Minimum.

As to the general situation, transport and food supplies are being handled by the government with increasing facility. In London today so great was the improvement in the bus service that large sections of the populace were relieved of further anxiety on this score.

More regular trains were in operation, but there have been several accidents on the railroads in the past two days. Early today the famous "Flying Scotsman," an express from Edinburgh to London, which fortunately was traveling very slowly, came upon an open rail and was partially wrecked. The rail had been removed and the locomotive and several cars turned over, but the passengers suffered no serious injuries.

Disturbances throughout the country have been kept down to a minimum. The general council of the Trades Union congress points out in its official statement that the government's communications "are beginning to bear out what we all along have stated, that order and discipline are very good and that there is nothing to fear, even from the dockers."

MARINE CORPS ASSIGNMENTS.

MAJORS—A. J. B. Biddle, reserve, to Philadelphia. FIRST LIEUTENANTS—W. F. Brown, to Hampton Roads, Va.; A. D. Chalacombe, to Quantico, Va.; E. B. Moore, to San Francisco.

DELEGATES NAMED TO CIVITAN MEETING

Sixth International Convention to Be Held in Philadelphia in June.

Thomas M. Stearn and W. O. Hiltabiddle were elected delegates to the sixth international convention of Civitan Clubs, which will be held in Philadelphia on June 28, 29 and 30, at the monthly dinner last night at the Hotel Lafayette.

Their alternates are John M. Swatwell and Thomas L. Phillips. The club endorsed the recommendation from the Federation of Civic Clubs requesting the District commissioners that in the organization of the public welfare commission they appoint persons not now represented on any of the boards of charitable and welfare organizations which are to be consolidated under the provisions of the act providing for the welfare commission.

Charles G. Morgan, chairman of the committee on arrangements for the dinner to be held at the Willard hotel May 25, reported on his work. Arthur Borden won the attendance prize, and the prize offered by James B. Henderson to the team of members having the largest attendance at the Americanization school was won by Leonard F. Huoff's team. Thomas M. Stearn, president of the club, presided.

Convention Opened By Epworth League

The Washington district Epworth league opened its annual two-day convention last night in the Hamline Methodist Episcopal church. Sixteen and Buchanan streets northwest. The session will close tonight with the election of officers. Bishop H. Lester Smith of Montana, was the principal speaker. Bishop J. Phelps Hand, district superintendent, will install the officers elected tonight.

Man Knocked Down by Auto.

While crossing Massachusetts avenue at H street northwest yesterday, Frank Gordon, 41 years old, of 731 Fourth street northwest, was struck and knocked down, police say, by an automobile driven by Jack Hallam, of 1325 Madison street. Hallam took the injured man to Casualty hospital, where he was treated for lacerations on the hand.

WIVES LOUDLY CHEER; ADVISE TO "CARRY ON"

"Up to You to Win Struggle," Dr. Marion Phillips Says at Big Meeting.

"SMILE," IS ADMONITION

London, May 11 (By A. P.).—Perambulators instead of automobiles were parked in front of St. Thomas' hall, Shepherd's Bush, where Dr. Marion Phillips, chief woman officer of the labor party, addressed the wives of several hundred strikers this afternoon. Labor pickets guarded the "prams" while the mothers were in the hall. At the conclusion of her address—"Keep smiling, feed your families, keep your men off the streets and your children in school"—the women cheered, waved babies' bonnets and umbrellas. Their demonstrations were so noisy that the children in arms began to cry with fright. Then came 100 striking transport and railway workers and surrounded Dr. Phillips and repeatedly cheered her until she consented to address them briefly.

Order and earnestness characterized the meeting in which the mothers repeatedly applauded the speaker's exhortations to stand fast. Among other things Dr. Phillips said: "Housewives must bear the burden of the strike. It will be you who will make or break the strike eventually. If you keep your men's spirits up they will get us through."

She told the women to ignore the effect of volunteer laborers on the situation, saying "They don't mean a thing; they can't start the wheels again; the stoppage is complete and will remain so as long as labor keeps its arms folded. After industrial victory we will have political victory as well, and labor will govern the country."

Dr. Phillips, who is emerging as an important figure in the strike, is editor of the Labour Woman, a monthly journal. She was born in Melbourne, Australia, and is unmarried, with labor and economic movements.

Earthquake Recorded By Seismograph Here

(By the Associated Press.) A "fairly pronounced" earthquake was recorded yesterday on the seismograph at Georgetown university.

Director Tondorf placed the disturbance at 2,500 miles from Washington, in an undetermined direction, lasting from 6:25 to 7:30 a. m., with the maximum shaking between 6:42 and 6:47 a. m.

DANDRUFF is a danger signal. If you have it you should do something about it. Perhaps you never knew it before, but dandruff is a germ disease. It spreads by infection from personal contact, as with the common use of combs and brushes. Children, for instance, are never troubled with dandruff until actually infected by some contact.

Dandruff is a disease difficult to cure but easy to check. It has a tendency to reappear, unless properly treated, and often brings with it the possible loss of hair or actual baldness.

The ideal treatment to combat dandruff conditions is the systematic use of Listerine, the safe antiseptic.

We have received hundreds of unsolicited letters from Listerine users, who are most enthusiastic in their claims for what Listerine will do in this way. If you are troubled with dandruff you owe it to yourself to try it.

The use of Listerine for dandruff is not complicated. You simply douse it on your scalp, full strength, and massage thoroughly. The effect is antiseptic, cleansing and healing. And you will be amazed to see how this treatment, followed systematically, combats dandruff.

Moreover, Listerine will not discolor the hair nor will it stain fabrics.

Not only men but women have become devoted users of Listerine for this purpose—women, particularly, since bobbed hair has been in vogue and has made them more conscious of dandruff if it happened to be present.

Try Listerine some evening when your scalp feels tired and itchy. Dandruff is probably causing the trouble. Apply it generously and then massage vigorously. You will find it a stimulating tonic for the scalp, and in addition to combating dandruff, you will find that it adds that luster and softness to the hair that is so important a part of being well-groomed.—Lambert Pharmacal Co., St. Louis, U.S.A.

A Dollar and Sense Talk About Saving

In these days of budgets no woman buys—for her personal needs or for her home—until she is convinced that the article she is buying is the best possible value for the money.

The seventeen stores—combined in the American Retailers Association, with which we are affiliated—have a policy as strict when they buy for her! Quality comes first—and price is the secondary consideration, but so large are the quantities in which this organization does its buying that prices are invariably lower.

The shrewd shopper will make her purchases at Lansburgh & Bro.—knowing that she has not only our reputation but that of sixteen other great stores as her guarantee of value.

NAVY AVIATION POLICY SANE, MOFFETT HOLDS

Dictates of Radicals Fought,
He Tells Graduates at Charleston College.

SEPARATION IS UNSOUND

Charleston, S. C., May 11 (By A. P.).—An echo of the air power controversy precipitated by William Mitchell, the assistant chief of the army air staff, came into the commencement exercises at the College of Charleston tonight when Rear Admiral William Moffett, navy air chief, reiterated his belief that air forces should never be separated from the fleet.

"Either through ignorance or malicious intent the navy has been charged with being opposed to the fullest development of its air arm," Admiral Moffett said. "Such accusations are an achievement of the navy. The navy, however, has been opposed to powerful attempts to wrest its aircraft from it and to the attempts of irresponsible individuals to create distrust in the ability and integrity of those directly concerned with the agencies of the national defense. Confidence in the forces safeguarding our interests is essential to national security."

"Our progress has been steady and our policies sane. That we have resisted the attempts to weaken our navy by following the dictates of radicals, should be placed to our credit."

"It can be truthfully stated that aerial efficiency is henceforth to be the true measure of sea power. That such is the reality of tomorrow no one can doubt in the light of post-war progress and achievement."

"To meet the exacting requirements of efficiency, the utilization of aerial weapons at sea cannot be hastily improvised in war time, but must be carefully prepared for by competent and responsible experts having faith in the future of air power, and perseveringly working along evolutionary practical lines."

Critics of Congress Wrong, Says Lord

Niagara Falls, N. Y., May 11 (By A. P.).—Herbert M. Lord, director of the budget, said tonight that the present Congress would measure up fully in ability and patriotism to preceding congresses in an address before the annual convention of the National Retail Dry Goods association. He defended Congress from what he termed the nation's unfortunate habit of criticizing that body unjustly.

He said that in the work of rearmament in the Federal service, Congress had played an important part and is entitled to the nation's friendly and intelligent support.

Cumberland Vetoes Daylight Saving Plan

Special to The Washington Post.
Cumberland, Md., May 11.—Mayor Thomas W. Koon today declined either to issue a proclamation or ask city council to pass an ordinance providing daylight-saving time in Cumberland. The mayor made the announcement after he learned that the Baltimore & Ohio railroad was opposed to the daylight-saving plan, because it would be expensive and have a tendency to disrupt working conditions at the company's shops. The daylight-saving plan was supported by the Cumberland Chamber of Commerce.

Miss Hoge Acquitted Of Killing Aged Cousin

Wheeling, W. Va., May 11 (By A. P.).—Miss Jessie Hoge, 55, was acquitted yesterday of the charge of murdering Nathan Bell, her aged cousin, who, the State alleged, was poisoned.

Judge Ritz directed the verdict in sustaining a defense motion. No defense witnesses were called.

HAUGEN FARM BILL AMENDMENTS BEATEN

Series of Changes Rejected;
Tilson Announces Opposition to Measure.

(By Associated Press)
The Haugen price stabilizing bill withstood first efforts to alter its provisions as the House moved slowly yesterday in its consideration of farm relief legislation. A series of amendments, in order for the first time, was rejected, but leaders, still at sea as to what the line-up will be on the three proposals reported by the agriculture committee, did not attach much significance to the action. None of the amendments was directed at vital provisions of the bill, and less than 100 of the 435 members took part in the voting.

At the outset of the session the Haugen bill did suffer a reverse, however, when Representative Tilson, the Republican leader, announced his opposition to it. He advocated passage of the Tincher credit measure, which with the Curtis-Aswell commodity marketing proposal is in position to be offered as substitutes to the bill sponsored by Chairman Haugen of the agriculture committee.

COUNCIL IS OPPOSED TO GRANT AS TO POOL

Advancement of the Colored People, protesting against segregation of white and colored bathers, and also objecting to the proposed location of the colored pool far from colored sections of the city.

Dr. Richardson followed the reading of the letter with remarks in which he repeated both objections, stressing criticism of Maj. Grant for not having conferred with reputable colored organizations before announcing the location of the pool.

Mr. Haverner objected to the colored pool being located in Anacostia, saying that it would further congest local transportation conditions already a burden to the people of the Southeast. All the members of the council disapproved of the location of the colored pool. Robert Faulkner wanted a pool for colored bathers located in the Northeast section, stating that colored residents there would have to go 8 miles to the proposed location. Mr. Haverner said there should be one in each division of the city. Dr. Richardson proposed the resolution to be presented to Maj. Grant and it was unanimously adopted.

W. I. Swanton's proposal that a 10-year fiscal program be adopted for the District was referred for further study to a committee consisting of himself and Mr. Dougherty.

Mr. Faulkner presented a resolution repeating the council's demand for repeal of the Borland amendment, but asking that, pending such action, special assessments for street paving be collected in four annual instalments instead of two as at present and that the rate of interest thereon be reduced from 8 to 6 per cent. He said he wanted to relieve small salaried workers of part of their burden. Objection was raised that the alternative proposal might weaken the case for repeal and action was postponed.

The council approved a draft of a bill for annual instead of biennial assessment of realty and ordered it sent to the chairman of the House District committee. It provides for nine additional clerks in the assessor's office, at an annual outlay of $18,000. It was said that it would result in increased revenue of $85,000 to $100,000 a year.

A proposal that the commissioners organize a municipal reference library in the District building was approved.

Barry Farms Citizens Approve Pool Project

The proposed bathing beach for negroes, to be located in Section C, of Anacostia park, was the subject of a favorable resolution at a meeting of the Barry Farms Citizens association in St. John's church, Anacostia, last night. The resolution recited approval of the Section C site by the commission of fine arts, as compliance with the law, and directed that a copy of its resolution be forwarded to Maj. U. S. Grant, 3d, director of public buildings and grounds, and to the commission of fine arts.

The association protested against the large amount of home study given children of the public schools. A letter was received from J. E. Syphax, principal of the Birney school, expressing appreciation of assistance of the association in procuring bubble fountains for Birney playground. The board of education was requested to resurface this playground with macadam.

Citizens Oppose Federal Education Department

After an hour's debate on the question of establishing a Federal department of education, the chief of which is to be a cabinet officer, the Lincoln Park Citizens association last night by an overwhelming vote went on record as opposed to the plan.

Unanimous approval to the plan of the Monday Evening club's for the thorough medical inspection of school children was voted. Officials of Eastern High school were given a vote of congratulations by the body for its record of winning the local place in the national oratorical contest for the past two years.

Name Day of Pope Is Kept at Vatican

Rome, May 11 (By A. P.).—With simple dignified ceremonies the name day of Pope Pius, which occurs tomorrow, was observed at the Vatican today, the pontiff giving audience to the members of the Sacred College of Cardinals and the ecclesiastical and civil courts, who presented their congratulations. His holiness, who was born Achille Ratti, at Desio, near Milan, May 31, 1857, celebrated St. Achilles day as his name day until he was elevated to the pontificate, when he decided to change the day to that of the festival of St. Nero and Achilles, martyrs, which is observed May 12.

CONVICTS FREED NIGHTS TO ROB, SAY REPORTS

Honor Farm Men in Joliet
Thus Paid for Paroles,
Officials Hear.

LEOPOLD TO BE CALLED

Chicago, May 11 (By A. P.).—Reports that honor farm convicts were permitted to spend nights in Chicago to commit robberies and that they bought paroles with the proceeds are said to have reached officials presenting evidence to the county grand jury at Joliet, which is investigating the killing of a deputy warden in the escape of seven prisoners last week.

While the reports have not been verified, officials were also informed that convicts were often permitted to enjoy an evening in roadhouses adjacent to the city and then return to their prison work in the morning. Several prisoners, reported also to have gained honor farm work through political influence rather than merit, are said to have escaped. Officials said the information would probably be given to the grand jury during the week.

Nathan Leopold, one of the players of Bobby Franks, may finally be called before the coroner's jury, as it was indicated late today that members expressed a desire to hear his story.

It was reported that he may have handed out knives to the escaping convicts, which they used to slay the deputy warden. Prison officials, however, have expressed several opinions on Leopold's conduct during the time of the escape.

A "crime conference," in which State's attorneys of Cook county (Chicago) and Will county will participate, will be held here Thursday with Oscar Carlstrom, State attorney general, in charge. It will concern reports say, recent actions of the State board of pardons and paroles and prison conditions in Joliet and Stateville prisons.

DISPOSAL PLANT BILL FAVORABLY REPORTED

House Measure Providing for Acquisition of Cherry Hill
Site Given to Senate.

Favorable report was made to the Senate yesterday on the House bill providing for the acquisition by the government of 65 acres of land at Cherry Hill, Va., for the District garbage disposal plant. The report was made by Senator Copeland, of New York, from the Senate District committee and the measure was placed on the calendar.

A similar bill already has been passed by the Senate, but was amended in the House. The plan is located at Cherry Hill, in Prince William county, Va., about 30 miles from Washington. It was leased in 1900 but the owners of the property declare they were not given proper notice of intention to renew the lease and have threatened election proceedings.

The plant cost $750,000, and the District commissioners estimate it would cost $1,000,000 to construct another plant and purchase land elsewhere. The owners want the District to buy all of the 450 acres in the tract, but the District wants only the 25 acres it has been leasing and 40 additional acres to provide for enlargement. The land is assessed at $6 an acre and the commissioners offered to buy it at $40 an acre. The bill provides for condemnation proceedings.

Lady Terrington Is Given a Divorce

London, May 11 (By A. P.).—Lady Terrington, former member of parliament, today obtained a divorce on the ground that Lord Terrington had been guilty of misconduct with Mrs. Rena Devere Humphrey. Lord Terrington did not defend the suit. Lady Terrington, who is about 36 years old, was the fourth woman to take a seat in the house of commons, being elected in 1922, and came to be known as the "best dressed M. P." Lord Terrington was her second husband. Guy Sebright, whom she married in 1907, committed suicide in 1912.

Court Enjoins Postal Ban Against Magazine

New York, May 11 (By A. P.).—Federal Judge Mack today granted an injunction restraining Postmaster General New and Postmaster Kieley, of New York, from enforcing the order prohibiting the transmission through the mails of the American Mercury for April, in which Herbert Asbury's article, "Hatrack," appeared.

BOONE TRAIL MARKER GIVEN WESTERN HIGH

Ezra Meeker, Pioneer, Makes Presentation Speech at School Assembly.

Western High school was awarded a tablet of Daniel Boone, the marker of the Boone Trail highway, at a special assembly yesterday. Ezra Meeker, veteran trail blazer, made the presentation on behalf of the Boone Trail association, and Dr. E. S. Newton, principal of the school, formally accepted the gift.

Pointing out that Western High school is the nearest of any city school to the old trail followed by Boone and his parents when they went south to North Carolina in 1750, Mr. Meeker explained the purpose of the organization in presenting the marker. Three hundred similar tablets have been placed across the continent by Hampton Rich, managing director of the Boone Trail association, during the last year. They are being used to mark the Boone-Fremont trail.

known as the "trail which won an empire."

Mrs. Goodwin Ellsworth, chairman of the Boone tablet committee of the Daughters of 1812, attended the meeting in her official capacity, as did representatives of the organization from North Carolina. Much local interest in the tablet presentation was evidenced through the attendance of large numbers of Washingtonians at the exercises, and the fact that the ceremony was made possible largely through the efforts of citizens of the community.

Street Market Craft Of $350,000 Charged

Chicago, May 11 (By A. P.).—Maxwell street, center of the ghetto's thriving open-air department store, today won the aid of Mayor William E. Dever in its fight against alleged extortion of tribute. The mayor demanded the resignation of Harry Lapping, market master for four years, and asked the transfer of Policeman M. J. Grant, on duty at the Maxwell street market for eight years. Alderman H. J. Fick defended Lapping when the ghetto hucksters declared they had been subjected to illegal taxation of upward of $350,000 annually.

stalling a service sewer in Fourteenth street northwest between Perry and Otis places, for $2,190.31, and A. McCandlish Co., Inc., was given the installation of a service sewer in Military road northwest between Twenty-eighth and Thirtieth streets for $2,338.

RIGHTS OF BRAIN WORK NEW LEAGUE FUNCTION

Institute of International Intellectual Cooperation Described to Librarians.

The settlement of the right of "brain property," by which the originator of a thought may be share proprietor of whatever invention results from it, in a newly assumed office of the League of Nations, Dr. Vernon Kellogg, secretary of the national research council, disclosed at a meeting of the Maryland and District of Columbia Library associations at the Library of Congress last night.

Dr. Kellogg was speaking of the institute of international intellectual cooperation sponsored by a specially appointed committee of the league. One of the activities of the institute, he said, is a movement to safeguard the interests of "original thinkers," and insure part of the proceeds of their thoughts for themselves.

The permitting of men of genius of various countries to pursue their work unshackled, the transfer of students and professors among colleges, a better union of effort among libraries, all over the world, are other measures of intellectual cooperation being considered, he said. He admitted that the chief difficulty is overidealism in the newly created institute.

Prize Is Awarded To Post Cartoonist

*Chassis 165-MK* is owned who takes life as it comes*

**Inspectors visit every Rolls-Royce chassis frequently during its entire life
This advertisement is based on detailed records kept at the Springfield works*

This man lives in Cleveland, Ohio. At one time, he was concerned in many large financial enterprises. Now, at middle age, he is retired from active business. He and his wife are interested in enjoying themselves.

His roadster (165-MK) calls for him at his club to take him golfing or to the country. He drives it himself. And he will tell you why. "Years ago, when I was a little boy, my first thrill came to me on my tenth birthday. I was given a bicycle. Twenty years ago, I sat behind the wheel of my first motor-car. That was my second thrill. Last year, when I bought this Rolls-Royce and drove it myself, I got the greatest thrill of my life."

Neither this owner nor his wife is interested in the impressive mechanics of the Rolls-Royce. He knows that his Rolls-Royce cars are extremely comfortable; he does not know that unusually long and flexible cantilever springs are one of the causes. He knows that his is a vibrationless motor-car; he is not concerned with the reason—a series of vibration dampeners of very efficient design. He can depend upon the brakes to stop his car quickly at any speed or to hold it with security on any descent; that the Rolls-Royce brake-drums are spun forgings, machined down from 90 to 30 pounds, having five times the cooling area of any other brakes, and lined with a secret composition which is guaranteed against required replacement for three years, regardless of use or abuse—these things do not bother him at all.

His Rolls-Royce cars (two enclosed cars in addition to the roadster) are always ready to go, anywhere. And always equal to their task. In short, this owner is interested in results, not causes.

If you were to call it to his mind, he would probably remember that each of his Rolls-Royce cars carries a 3-year guarantee against failure of any mechanical part. But since the guarantees have never been called in question, he has no reason to remember them. And the beauty of his Rolls-Royce cars matches the excellence of their mechanical performance.

What a reliable servant the Rolls-Royce has proved to this man and his wife! What an investment in comfort and transportation! They may expect at least 20 years of unflinching service from their cars.

Can you rightfully ask as much of your motor-car? If you will make yourself known at our show-rooms, we shall be glad to arrange a 100-mile trial trip in a Rolls-Royce, at any time, over any roads.

Carnegie Institute Tests prove- Royal Typewriters "Do Run Easier"

Carnegie Institute of Technology recently tested three largest selling standard typewriters to determine which required the least energy to operate.

TEST No. 1

Force required to type a legible line, typewriter as used—

Typewriter "A" (Royal Typewriter) - 100.0%

Typewriter "B" (One leading standard make) - 128.3%
28.3% more energy required than for Royal

Typewriter "C" (Another leading standard make) - 158.7%
58.7% more energy required than for Royal

TEST No. 2

Force required to operate shift key

Typewriter "A" (Royal Typewriter) 100%

Typewriter "B" (One leading standard make) 220%
120% more energy required than for Royal

Typewriter "C" (Another leading standard make) 280%
180% more energy required than for Royal

TEST No. 3

Force required to move carriage with line space lever as when using machine

Typewriter "A" (Royal Typewriter) 100.0%

Typewriter "B" (One leading standard make) 133.3%
33.3% more energy required than for Royal

Typewriter "C" (Another leading standard make) 175.0%
75% more energy required than for Royal

They Do Run Easier

Careful tests made by our own mechanical experts—and the experience of typists all over the world—have clearly demonstrated the fact that Royal Typewriters DO run easier. But we wanted further proof—tests made by an impartial scientific authority.

So we asked our advertising agents to see if these tests could be made by the Mechanical Engineering Department of Carnegie Institute of Technology—whose opinion would be unbiased since they are uninterested in the typewriter business.

Carnegie Institute was asked to buy in the open market one Royal Typewriter and two other leading standard typewriters. Our office in Pittsburgh, from whom the Royal machine was purchased, knew nothing of the purpose for which it was bought. Nor did the companies who sold the other machines.

The Machines Used In This Test Were Just The Same As The Ones You Would Purchase For Your Own Use—no special tuning or adjustments of any sort were made on them.

The tests were impartial—they were made without any member of The Royal Typewriter organization being present—without any conditions or restrictions from us.

The results speak for themselves—and for the Royal Typewriter. We ask you to read the results and compare.

WASHINGTON AND LEE BEATS MARYLAND ON DIAMOND

Terrapin Win
Of Monday
AvengedGenerals Get 15 Hits
For 24 Bases Off
Md. Pitchers.Lead Changes Many Times in Course of Contest.

COLLEGE PARK, Md., May 11.—Combining three University of Maryland pitchers for 15 hits, for a total of 24 bases, Washington and Lee vanquished the Old Liners, 9 to 8, in Byrd stadium here this afternoon and avenged an 8-to-5 trouncing handed them here Monday by the Terrapins.

It was an interesting game with the lead alternating constantly. The Generals were the first to count shoving over a tally in the second on two errors and a fielder's choice. Maryland, however, got this run back and another to boot in their half on a walk, sacrifice, Brayton's triple and Davis' single.

The Lexington lads tied the score in the third on doubles by Spotts and Stearns. In the third the Terrapins got two runs to take the lead and increased the margin by another in the fourth.

The Generals, on three singles and a triple, again tied the count in the fifth, when they counted three runs and drove England to the showers. The visitors took the lead by one in the sixth, only to have Maryland come back in its half of this frame to count twice and again get the advantage.

In the seventh the Generals scored two runs to hop in front once more. Maryland evened the count in the eighth again but in the ninth the visitors scored their ninth run, which proved the margin of victory. It was Maryland's last home game.

METHODIST BISHOPS APPROVE PROGRAM OF WIDER SERVICE

Prohibition Aid, Native Mission Leadership and Help to Education Included.

$8,000,000 ON HAND FOR SUCH PURPOSES

No Action Taken on Case of Copenhagen Prelate Under Sentence.

The semiannual meeting of the bishops of the Methodist Episcopal church closed at the Foundry church yesterday noon with the adoption of a larger world service and education program for the coming year.

The program proposed Monday night by Bishop Theodore S. Henderson, of Cincinnati, Ohio, and adopted by the board yesterday includes prohibition enforcement with no modification in the present law, development of native leadership in the mission field, more intensive religious education in the colleges and universities and the making of more positive Christians among the Methodists in this and foreign countries. Three bishops from the United States and four from the foreign field were appointed members of the world service commission to carry out the program. They were Bishop Laureus J. Birney, of China; Bishop Edgar Blake, of Paris; Bishop George A. Miller, of Mexico; Bishop Frederick B. Fisher, of India; Bishop Edwin Holt Hughes, of Detroit; Bishop Theodore S. Henderson, of Cincinnati; and Bishop Thomas Nicholson, of Detroit, who is president of the Antislavery league.

Approximately $8,000,000 is at the disposal of the commission for carrying out the program.

Fear to Prejudice Case.

No action was taken on Bishop Anton Bast of Copenhagen, Denmark, who is under sentence of three months in prison for alleged misrepresentations made in his church paper, Lighthouse, through which he collected funds for charitable purposes. A stay of the sentence has been granted pending an appeal he has made for a new trial in the civil courts of Copenhagen.

Formal pronouncement on the case was passed over because the bishops felt that any action on their part might prejudice the case of their brother prelate. Informally, practically all of the bishops have expressed their belief that Bishop Bast is innocent of any moral wrong.

The President and Mrs. Coolidge, and Bishop William F. McDowell, of Washington, received generous eulogies from the visiting bishops in a resolution of thanks for their hospitality. All other bodies and individuals, including the pastor of the Foundry church, the Rev. Frederick Brown Harris, were included in the resolution.

Bishop McDowell was assigned to preside over the Des Moines conference at Perry, Iowa, September 22 and over the Northwest Iowa conference at Sioux City, Iowa, on September 29. Other bishops were assigned to other conferences to be held next autumn and those who will preside over the spring conferences will be assigned at the next meeting of the board of bishops.

Life Underwriters Elect Directors

The District of Columbia Life Underwriters association met at luncheon in the oak room of the Raleigh hotel yesterday to elect the board of directors. N. E. Ellsworth, H. L. Choate, A. L. Baldwin, F. E. Strunk, J. E. Croonen, R. P. Freeman, G. B. Farquhar, Eugene Adams and A. W. Defenderfer were named.

The board of directors will meet soon to elect the officers of the association. Mr. Ellsworth, present president, presided at the luncheon. Plans were completed for the Maryland-District of Columbia Life Insurance Sales congress which will be held in Baltimore tomorrow. More than 300 members of the local association will attend.

JARDINE IS NAMED OUSTER DEFENDANT

Wardman Company Seeks to Eject Government From Bieber Building.

W. W. Jardine, Secretary of Agriculture, who was named a defendant in an ouster proceedings in circuit court to compel the department to vacate the Bieber building, 1323 B street southwest, which is owned by Harry Wardman, defended the government's right yesterday in his plea in which he says that the department is lawfully in possession.

The Wardman organization contended that the government's lease expired at the end of the fiscal year 1925, but the Secretary says the lease entered into in December, 1914, contained an option of renewal for ten years at a rental of $22,860 a year. The owners of the building offered to renew the lease for $20,000 a year. Mr. Jardine says. Assistant District Attorney Leo A. Rover attached to Mr. Jardine's plea a copy of the 1914 lease upon which the government bases its right to continue as a tenant. In connection with the dispute over the supposed renewal clause in the 1914 lease the Wardman organization contended that a part of a rejected lease became attached to the 1914 lease and was filed in the office of the recorder of deeds. In this case the court will have to decide which interpretation of the lease is correct.

Wilkerson, and Mrs. Esther N. Emmart.

NATIONAL AIR CONTEST TO BE HELD HERE FRIDAY

Eighty-Mile Race Will Be Flown by Seaplanes for Curtiss Trophy.

SHOW PROGRESS IN TYPES

The first national aircraft contest in Washington will be held Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock over an 80-mile course between the naval air station at Anacostia and a point in the Potomac river, 10 miles below the Army War college, four complete laps being made for the race.

Navy seaplanes will compete for the Curtiss Marine trophy in this annual classic for airplanes and flying boats held under auspices of the National Aeronautic association for the trophy donated by Glenn Curtiss, a pioneer of aviation, which is now on exhibit at the Navy Department.

Five classes of planes will be entered, a two-minute interval being allowed between the starting of the different types of planes in the race, the first starting at 4 o'clock.

Two navy single-seater fighting planes of the F6-C type, piloted by Lieuts. T. P. Jeter and James Barker, will be first to start. These ships are capable of making over 150 miles an hour. Lieut. Hershey Conant in a navy UO-1 observation plane, will race in the next class against a similar type plane piloted by a naval aviator from Hampton Roads. The next plane off will be a twin float seaplane of the SC-6 type, powered by an 800-horsepower engine and piloted by Lieut. C. C. Champion, of the bureau of aeronautics.

In the twin engine flying boat class, Chief Boatswain Fitzpatrick of the Anacostia air station, in an H-16 flying boat, will race against a pilot from Hampton Roads in a similar type plane. In a still larger flying boat, Lieut. L. W. Curtin will pilot an F5-L boat seaplane powered with two 400-H.P. engines, in competition with a similar type from the naval air station at Hampton Roads, Va.

Prior to the races and starting at 2 o'clock, the army and navy will join in an aerial demonstration showing the progress of service types of aircraft. There will be a formation of fighting planes piloted by marine aviators from Quantico, Va., smoke screens, parachute jumps by personnel from Hampton Roads, Lakehurst and Anacostia, formation flying, pursuit attacks, aerobatics and similar aerial maneuvers. The pursuit planes from Quantico will be accompanied by five bombers.

The demonstration and the races can be seen from Hains Point, the air station at Anacostia and Bolling field.

B. & O. Exploitation Of Capital Told

The ways in which the Baltimore & Ohio railroad advertises and exploits Washington, bringing conventions and schools to this city, were explained to the members of the Ad club at the weekly luncheon held yesterday at the City club, by Col. W. V. Shipley, assistant general passenger agent, Baltimore & Ohio railroad, and H. B. Right, traveling passenger agent, stationed at Cumberland, Md. Pictures of Washington used for out-of-town advertising purposes were shown. J. O. Martin, president of the club, presided, and read the names selected by the nominating committee as officers for the ensuing year. Elections will be held on May 25. Allen DeFord, chairman of the On-to-Philadelphia committee, reported on plans for the international convention, to be held at the Sesqui-centennial exposition from June 16 to June 24.

Veteran's Longevity Laid to Temperance

Col. Lee Crandall, an officer who served under "Stonewall" Jackson during the civil war, celebrated his ninety-fourth birthday anniversary yesterday at his post in the revenue office at 1422 Pennsylvania avenue. He has never taken a day of annual or sick leave since he was appointed a deputy collector of internal revenue, in 1914. The veteran's health is excellent, and he expressed the most optimistic opinions on all subjects. Temperance in all things is responsible for his longevity, he declared. He advocates drinking a pint of warm water before breakfast. This gives one an internal bath, he said. Col. Crandall expects to soon be the only living Confederate colonel.

JUVENILE COURT BILL ACTION IS DEFERRED

Differences Between Factions Cause Chance of Enactment This Term to Vanish.

AMENDMENTS PLANNED

Differences between various interests represented at a hearing before a House subcommittee yesterday apparently put an end definitely to any chance of enactment of a new juvenile court law at this session of Congress.

The proposed new juvenile court has been the subject of sharp differences since the question of amending the existing law first was brought up before the District commission on public welfare legislation. The pending McLeod bill, which abolishes the present court and sets up a "children's court" with two judges, was opposed at the hearing yesterday by Mrs. E. R. Kalmbach, of the Congress of Parent-Teacher Associations, while former juvenile court judge William H. DeLacy, who has been active in opposition to the welfare commission bill, supported the McLeod measure.

Issue was taken with some of Judge DeLacy's statements by Representative Gilbert, of Kentucky, and in the course of the hearing Representative McLeod admitted that he had introduced his bill at the request of local interests and was not entirely familiar with all the points in dispute.

Mrs. Kalmbach declared that her organization wanted all juvenile court legislation postponed until the next session of Congress in December. The association some time ago endorsed the welfare commission bill which changed the procedure and enlarged the jurisdiction of the present court. The District commissioners have declared that they want to submit some amendments to the welfare commission bill, which they sent to Congress originally with their indorsement.

REPORT ON DE VALIN CHARGES RECEIVED

Nature of the Investigating Board's Findings Are Not Made Public.

Report of a naval board of investigation in the case of Capt. C. M. De Valin, commandant of the naval hospital at Norfolk, Va., who, according to Norfolk, Va., reports, is said to be accused of violation of the Volstead act and appropriating government material to his own use, reached the office of Rear Admiral E. H. Campbell, judge advocate of navy, yesterday, and may be before Secretary of the Navy Wilbur today.

Rear Admiral Campbell said yesterday that he could not divulge the nature of the investigating board's report, which would be forwarded to the bureau of navigation, and from that bureau to Secretary of the Navy Wilbur with recommendation for a court-martial or the contrary. The report was forwarded to the Navy Department by Rear Admiral Counts, commanding the Fifth naval district at Norfolk. ## STREET EXTENSIONS PLANNED TO RELIEVE TRAFFIC CONGESTION

Brentwood Road Connection With T Street Bridge Is Recommended.

SURVEY ON UTAH AVENUE CHANGE WILL BE MADE

Future Highways Will Be Made Wider, Planning Board Decides.

Relief for overloaded thoroughfares was considered by the city and park planning committee yesterday. It recommended the extension of Brentwood road northeast from its intersection with Rhode Island avenue to connect with the T street bridge over the railroad yards. This improvement would relieve Rhode Island avenue of some traffic.

The committee also will study the present highway plan in the vicinity of Soldiers home, with a view to recommending the opening of a direct highway from that point to the Bladenburg road.

Changing the present route of Utah avenue in the vicinity of Nebraska avenue so that it will follow the line of the old Rock Creek Ford road was considered, but no action was taken further than determining on a survey to ascertain whether any grade could be saved by the change.

Engineers to Study Plan. The committee will have its engineers study the territory at Ivy City, just north of the Columbia Institution for the Deaf, with a view toward a highway plan for that vicinity in conformity with street improvements now being made according to the general scheme of District highways.

The District commissioners yesterday received a letter from George C. Shinn, chairman of the committee on streets and alleys of the Washington Board of Trade, containing a recommendation by his committee that future streets be planned of greater width. The letter said:

"At a recent meeting it was unanimously resolved to recommend that, in planning thoroughfares for the future, the fact be borne in mind that automobile traffic is rapidly increasing and it is highly desirable that future highways be made wider than they are at present."

Police Will Auction Abandoned Property

Public sale of abandoned property in the hands of the Metropolitan police department May 15, at 10 a. m., was authorized yesterday by the District commissioners. The sale will take place at the auction house of David Notes, 833 Louisiana avenue northwest. The commissioners also authorized Maj. Edwin B. Hesse, superintendent of police, to destroy deadly weapons that have come into a police possession.

Private Charles O. Turner, station clerk of the Twelfth police precinct, was retired by the board yesterday at half pay, effective June 1, for physical disability.

Mellon Injunction Suit Is Dismissed

The injunction suit brought against Andrew W. Mellon, Secretary of the Treasury, and David H. Blair, commissioner of internal revenue, by the California Wine Association of New York, to prevent interference with the sale of 10,000 cases of champagne for sacramental purposes, was dismissed yesterday by Justice Siddons in equity court, which was on motion of Assistant District Attorney Harold W. Orcutt.

The motion was based principally on the contention that the plaintiff has not such an interest in the champagne as to entitle it to maintain the suit. The plaintiff is a subsidiary of the California Wine Association of California.

ATTORNEY IS SOUGHT BY UTILITIES BOARD

District Supply Bill Creates New Post; Appointment in June Likely.

Following the signing of the District supply bill by the President, the District public utilities commission is seeking a lawyer to retain as assistant general counsel to the commission.

The appropriation act provides $5,500 for the purpose. The new counsel will be an assistant to Corporation Counsel Frank H. Stephens, on the latter's capacity as general counsel to the commission, but he will devote his whole time to public utility work. It is expected his appointment will be announced in June.

An effort was made by Representative Frederick Zihlman, chairman of the House District committee, to have the appropriation amended to make the lawyer a people's counsel, to represent the public before the commission and the courts. It did not prevail. There is still pending a bill to reorganize the commission, which provides authorization for employment of a people's counsel.

The landlady, who sued Gouldman for $15,000 damages for alleged slander, dismissed her suit through Attorney W. A. Coombs.
